PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, International Toastmistress Clubs was founded 32 years ago in October 1938 by Ernestine White, first president of International Toastmistress Clubs; and

WHEREAS, there are now 1120 chartered Toastmistress clubs throughout the world, including 9 clubs in South Dakota; and

WHEREAS, membership in one of the many International Toastmistress Clubs provides the opportunity for self-development through the study of techniques in effective speaking and leadership training; and

WHEREAS, the training received in International Toastmistress Clubs enables members to serve more effectively in the other organizations to which they belong;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Frank Farrar, governor of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the week beginning Sunday, October 25, 1970, as in South Dakota in recognition of the praiseworthy achievements of the International Toastmistress Clubs, and urge all citizens to avail themselves of this opportunity to acquaint themselves with the fine program carried on by these clubs.

IN WITNESS, WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand this 14th day of October, 1970, A.D.
